9N0MD ---> "The Nepal 2011 team is pleased to announce a new and improved website in response to the interest our DXpedition has generated. Please visit our new site www.mdxc.org/nepal2011 to keep up to date on the status of our expedition and keep in contact with our team members and pilots". [TNX IZ8CCW]

DXCC NEWS ---> Changes have been made to the DXCC e-mail contact system and dxcc[@]arrl.org is no longer in use. "In an effort to better serve our clients", Bill Moore (NC1L) says, "we have created a number of new e-mail addresses that will be delivered to the most appropriate person depending upon the subject. Please visit http://www.arrl.org/awards-branch-contacts for a listing of the new e-mail addresses and the general topics that they cover".

ST0R ---> The remaining ST0R team members will do their "best for to keep at least 4 stations on the air during the weekend". K1LZ will be working mainly on the low bands until 10 August sunrise ("QRM and QRN levels are over 599+10 and our daily storm does not help with statics noise"). The log search is now current for QSOs made through 12.13 UTC on 5 August. A total of 96,877 QSOs have been made with 23,952 unique callsigns. Check www.dxfriends.com/SouthernSudan2011/ for log updates, news from the team in Juba and pictures.

T32C ---> The container of equipment for the T32C expedition to Kiritimati, Estern Kiribati (28 September-26 October) has reached Fiji and is due to ship soon to T32. "The team is now pretty much complete, with no less than 41 operators, some of whom will be there for the whole period, others will be there for the first or second half. At any one time there will be around 30 operators on the island, permitting us to operate round the clock on all bands with, propagation and other factors permitting, two stations QRV on each of 80 through 10". The latest Press Bulletin, issued on 2 August, and extensive information on the DXpedition can be found at www.t32c.com [TNX G3XTT]

TOP LISTS ---> The latest Topband, Topmode and Toplist listings are now available at www.425dxn.org/awards/toplist/index.html. QSOs confirmed through LoTW or included in on-line logs are eligible for listing. Send send your scores, as well as any request for further information, to Erminio Pandocchi, I2EOW (i2eow[@]fastwebnet.it)

WRTC-2014 PROMOTIONAL VIDEO ---> Professionally produced by James Brooks (9V1YC), with narration provided by Erik Thompson (KA6UAI), a promotional video about the 2014 World Radiosport Team Championship is now available for viewing from the home page of the WRTC web site (www.wrtc2014.org). "Using footage from previous WRTC competitions, the video conveys the energy, excitement, and sporting goodwill that results when amateur radio contesters from around the world come together to compete on a level playing field". [TNX K5ZD]
