5V7A ON THE WEB ---> This year the Voodoo Contest Group offers a new and exciting Internet Web-Page (http://voodudes.com). In addition to all the detailed facts and figures about this major expedition along with many photographs, maps, charts and specimen QSL cards you will find a simple electronic form to be used for QSL requests via the bureau, or to see if you are in the 5V7A log. Many important areas of the site may be accessed in English or Spanish, along with several sections also available in French, German, English, Spanish and Finnish. Latest news of expedition progress will be posted to the 'Update' section in all five languages. Do not forget to give a look to the Propagation area - just click over your QTH on the world-map for a listing of openings to Togo from your region, by hour and by band. [TNX G3SXW]

CAMPBELL 1999 ---> Well known CW operator 9V1YC, James Brooks has joined the Kermadec DX Association DXpedition to Campbell Island [425DXN 378]. HJ4F ---> HJ4F (Hamming Just for Fun) is a monthly electronic magazine available for the asking. It is totally ham-related, and is usually short in lenght (two-three articles per month, one of them usually being technical in nature and often dedicated to home brew). If you would like to be included on the mailing list, please send a short message with your name and e-mail address to Bill A. Hartzell (KB3COP) at illbill@juno.com and he will forward it to the editor. [TNX KB3COP]

OLDEST YL HAM? ---> Iris Hayes, ZS2AA is the Honorary Life President of the Border Radio Club in East London, South Africa. She will be 95 years old in October this year and she is still active on the air. "We believe that Iris may be the oldest YL ham in the world and we would like to publicise this, but would first like to be certain of this fact", Colin Robertson (ZS2CR) says. If you know of another YL ham (active or not) who is older than Iris, please send a message to ZS2CR at rroberts@dolphin.ru.ac.za [TNX ZS4BS]

POSTAGE FROM ARGENTINA ---> Raul M. Diaz, LU6EF, QSL manager for GACW (Grupo Argentino de CW), reports a recent rise in postal rates from Argentina. Postage to "neighbouring countries" now is US$ 1, to "other American countries" is US$ 1.25, to "other continents" is US$ 1.50. [TNX LU6EF]
